In making the determination on granting a permit and in the sole discretion of the Sound Control Administrator, the administrator may consider the following:

- character and degree of injury to, or interference with, the health and welfare of the reasonable use of property that is caused or threatened to be caused by the sound, to result from the temporary sound permit,
- social and economic value of the activity for which the permit is sought, and
- ability of the applicant to apply best practical noise control measures.

Remarks
 (administrator use only):

IMPORTANT - The temporary sound permit shall enumerate the conditions of the permit including specific dates, times, duration, and distances for which the permit is valid, sound level limits which may not be exceeded at the nearest affected residential property, or any other such conditions that may mitigate any adverse impact upon the parties, as determined by the Sound Control Administrator. A permit may be revoked by the Sound Control Administrator and the issuance of future permits withheld if terms of this permit are violated.
