

Build a better business.

Learn from local experts.

What's brewing in small business? Join us each month as we talk about relevant topics to help you build and improve your business skills. Coffee and experts supplied by the Sedona Economic Development Department.

2018 ■ June - July – August experts

June 26 – Emily Griffin, CPA, 25 years in business accounting with extensive knowledge of business tax laws. Owner of Desert Foothills Accounting and Tax. Topic: Why do balance sheets and profit/loss statements matter?

July 24 – Kathie Teal, small business analyst for the Small Business Development Center of the Verde Valley, 30 years in business ownership and management. Topic: LivePlan, an online business planning tool.

Aug. 28 - Chris Doyle, commercial banker and business financing expert with Wells Fargo and Capital Creation Committee member of the Verde Valley Regional Economic Organization. Topic: Are you ready for business? Understand cash flow, start-up costs and how to acquire funding.

When 8 - 9:30 a.m.

Where Vultee Conference Room
Next to the City Manager's Office
Sedona City Hall, 102 Roadrunner Dr.

Register sedonaaz.gov/econdev Training and events

Subscribe to our economic development and small business news list. Keep up with news, workshops and training opportunities. Unsubscribe at any time. sedonaaz.gov/eNotify

Molly Spangler, director
Sedona Economic Development Dept.
102 Roadrunner Dr.
Sedona, Az 86336
mbspangler@sedonaaz.gov
(928) 203-5117