

Asst. City Attorney Shelley Cutts

Shelley Cutts joined the city in July 2019.

Cutts received her bachelor's degree summa cum laude and her law degree cum laude from Arizona State University.

Prior to college, Cutts served in the United States Army as a Russian linguist. She was a law clerk to former Chief Justice of the Arizona Supreme Court Ruth McGregor and has 20 years of experience practicing law in the private and public sectors.

Other experience includes staff attorney for the Arizona Attorney General's Office assigned as general counsel to the Arizona Game and Fish Commission and Department, and later was a staff attorney and deputy chief counsel for the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs. Most recently, Cutts was an assistant city attorney for Tempe, Ariz.

